Mira Weiss Appointed Member of New York State Bar Committee on Disability Rights.

By Weiss Law Group, PLLC | July 26, 2018 | Announcements and Press

Weiss Law Group, PLLC (WLG) has announced that Mira Weiss, the firm's Founder and Senior Counsel in charge of Health, Elder Law and Special Needs practices, has been appointed to the New York State Bar Association Committee on Disability Rights.

The term is for three years. The mission of the New York State Bar Association Committee on Disability Rights is "to consider any and all matters pertaining to legal issues affecting people with disabilities". As part of its responsibilities, the committee studies the operations of the laws and regulations affecting the disabled and makes recommendations on related pending or proposed legislation, as well as educates and advocates for the benefit of disabled New Yorkers.

Ms. Weiss serves as a delegate of the New York City Bar Association to the New York State Bar Association House of Delegates, and chairs the Health Law Committee of the Southern District of New York Federal Bar Association. She is recent past Chair of the Small Law Firm Committee of the New York City Bar Association, a post she held for three years, and currently serves as a member of the Trusts and Estates Committee.

About Mira Weiss

Mira Weiss has dedicated her legal career to the representation of individuals and health care providers and insurance enterprises. She enjoys teaching and speaking about a variety of elder planning and disability related topics and is often called upon to educate attorneys, accountants, health care providers and community groups. She is an enrolled Part 36 fiduciary and elder law family mediator. She recently joined the esteemed firm of Abrams Garfinkel Margolis Bergson, LLP providing of counsel support to its real estate practice.

She is a member of the New York State Bar Association, New York City Bar Association, National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, Southern District of New York Federal Bar Association, and the Orion Resource Group.
